

Are you positive you're negative?

HIV testing is one of the routine tests offered during pregnancy.

A pregnant woman living with HIV who receives treatment and care can reduce the chance of her baby being infected with HIV to less than 2%.